Dedication

To be able to function properly, each school must have an efficient secretary. Not only has our school been blessed with a very efficient secretary, she also acts as sponsor of groups.

We the 1973 WILDCAT staff, because of her dedication and loyalty, dedicate this 1973 annual to Mrs. Claris Alexander.

Every part of nature teaches that the passing away of one life is the making room for another. The oak dies down to the ground, leaving within its rind a rich virgin mould, which will impart a vigorous life to an infant forest.

Two of our basketball girls were selected for the all league team. They are Karen Alexander (at left), and Lana Boaldin (lower). They were selected by the coaches from all league team under the basis of ability, and sportsmanship or personality. We consider it a great privilege to have had these girls in our high school. Good luck!

The girls were also awarded a slumber party by Coach Riley. Here's Karen, with her mouth open as usual!

The main purpose of the President's Club is to coordinate school activities, coordinate leadership, and provide for a student contact with all organizations. An occasional, the club sponsors an activity but this is secondary. The main project for the '2-'3 school term was the Christmas parade float.

Spanish Club

The Spanish Club went on their annual trip to Mexico. This year they rode to Mexico City on a chartered bus, with 24 club members, 4 adult sponsors and parents, 3 college students, and their sponsor Mrs. Smith. They went to many exciting places including the famous 3 Highways, the Pyramids of Teotihuacan, Mexican Markets, Chapultepec Park and castles. Everyone seemed to agree that it was a most wonderful trip.

The Junior Play is put on to raise money for the Junior-Senior Prom. This year the play was a mixture of comedy, and drama. The Juniors had a very enjoyable time putting on the play, and hoped the public enjoyed it as much as they did. A special thanks goes to Mrs. Schraeder and her superb job of directing.

PROPHECY

Class of 1973

As a retired principal, Mr. Fowler turns the rest of his life to traveling. As he nears the city of Podunk, USA, he sees Terry Ferguson roaring past him in her old 1973 pick-up with her eight kids hanging out the back end. To the left Mr. Fowler sees Mr. Lyndell Herron, our country extension agent, checking the chemical make-up of the soil.

Today is the day of the Big Podunk Rodeo held at David Jackson's big cattle ranch. Podunk's own Vincent Forbes and Rodney Williams are the special attractions in the Bull Riding Events. Podunk's own Karen Alexander is our favorite clown. Running around the rodeo grounds is Nancy Walsh trying to get cowboy autographs to go with her wrestler's autographs. Boyd Berghaus and Rene Barney are back up to their old tricks - selling snowcones for $1.50 each at the refreshment stand.

Rod and Vince score zero, so Mr. Fowler decides to travel on into the city. A hunger pain strikes, so he stops at the El Podunk Rancho. Mary Carson quickly brings him his glass of water. Sitting in the next booth, he sees Liz and Terry Lewis eating out on their 10th anniversary. He orders a rare steak and because it comes out well done, he gripes at the owner, David Anderson, leaves, and goes to the Podunk grocery store. Manager Lonnie Luck checks him out and packer Randy Smith drops his jar of salad dressing. In disgust, Mr. Fowler calls chief of police, Jay Wagner and deputy Roger St. John. News reporter of P.O.D.U.N.K. Bryce Haverkamp, eagerly tries to get a report of the incident.

Giving up on dinner, Mr. Fowler goes to the Rolly-Polly Donut Shop owned by Mark Mohs. He is served by Jill Ketchum.

Mrs. Fowler pleads to go shopping. She starts at Joni's Beauty Joint for a facial. While Mr. Fowler waits, he goes to the back and has his hair styled by world-famous Kirk Snyder. Kirk gets carried away and nicks

Mr. Fowler's car. Robert Fink, Kirk's handy man, runs to Podunk-Walls to get a bandage. Mr. George Powell shows Robert down for rummage in the store. The bandage does no good. Having difficulty getting a good connection with the hospital, they call David Dower, telephone repair man, who gets them a car line. Podunk's first lady ambulance driver, Crystal Studebaker, gets to the scene in no time flat. She rushes Mr. Fowler to the hospital where he is aided by Dr. Rod Branstetter and Nurse Sasie Hainschild. While in the hospital he sees Jo and Mike Johnson leaving with their firstborn.

Needing money to pay for the hospital expense, Mr. Fowler goes to our friendly bank teller, Miss Rita Irsik, for a loan. Miss Karen Papay is at bank making a deposit for the Podunk Court House.

Having a little extra money, Mr. Fowler stops in at Podunk's friendly music store run by Mr. Dennis Smith. Top record for the month is by our own Jeanine Weber - "I never promised you a Podunk garden."

Needing protection in the rough town of Podunk, he stops in at Sally's Matt Hat, owner Sally Melia. A poodle was just the thing he needed and got. Needing food for his dog, he stops in at the Lewis Locker where Kay Lewis weighs out the meat. Lana Boaldin is picking up her regular month's supply of beef.

As he pulls into the Jimmy Lavielle Gas Station, he blows a gasket and has to be pulled to Bultman's, Inc. owned by Alan Bultman. Because his car can't be repaired till tomorrow, he checks into Podunk's No-Tell Motel, owner Jeff Flanagan. Gayle McCarter is at the switchboard.

In the ballroom there is a dedication of the most outstanding citizens. Mayor Mark Bultman is presenting the award to Mrs. Karen Rensch and her husband Craig.

Early the next morning Mr. Fowler wakes his landlady, Mrs. McCarson, only to find that he must leave to stay in Podunk with all his old classmates.

Our friendly mechanic, Rickey Lackey, replaces Mr. Fowler's gasket with a John Deere gasket, and Mr. Fowler leaves lonely and heartbroken.

To my best friend who is always giggling over with giggles. I know I can dump some to you with any of my silly problems and get an honest and intelligent answer. I also know you will keep it to yourself. You really add a lot to "Heart Senior High". I know you will achieve all of your goals in life.
Good luck always and best times you!
